Challenger Sports runs over 2000 British Soccer Camps and clinics throughout the US and Canada, teaching over 100,000 boys and girls each year!

These special indoor holiday camps coached by Challenger's team of US based coaches will provide your child with a fun packed program of really cool foot skills, exciting practices and coached games to help them become more confident and skillful players.

Although we don't promise to turn your child into the next David Beckham or Mia Hamm, we do promise that they will have a fantastic time and will love the way that we teach them how to become better players.
